Our dog Monty is a 3 year old Jack Russell Terrier. Monty was born deaf, but smart as a whip, he can do tricks by hand gestures and had no problem being house broken. His other senses are extremely heightened.

One night a couple of months ago, we had our wood burning stove on. We had put a frozen piece of wood on top of the stove to defrost it and went up to bed. A few hours later I woke up to the sound of our dog running up and down the hardwood flooring in the hallway and crying. What really got me up was when he came next to me in my bed nudging me to get up, and then I smelled it, something was burning and it wasn't good. I got my husband up and realized it was the piece of wood on top of the stove, it didn't catch fire but got so hot the house had filled with thick gray smoke.

If it wasn't for Monty, who knows what would have happened. He is our little hero and has been spoiled ever since.

Membership Appreciation Day

Nov 17, 2007

Thank you members for turning out for a great day of fun with the terriers and fun with fellow members.

I think 54 old and new members showed up. We had 98 + dogs participating in racing, go-to-ground and super earth. It was great to see the new ones and their owners trying this out. It reminds you of how quickly you get hooked into this "hobby". I am always amazed when I hear the newbies exclaim how wonderful their dog performed and how surprised they were that this little white dog could do these things and appear to really love doing them. I know many of them went home with some tired Jacks. I also want to thank those that brought non-jacks and ran lure and even joined our club to show their support. Those dogs had a good time too. That is what this is really about, having fun. The more we can offer as a club, the better for our dogs and members.

I just want to say a special thanks to those that helped this weekend; Nathan, Rachel, Sean, Shane, Pat, Ruth, Jason, Lorri, Rick, Patsy, Don, Melanie, Jackie, Jose, Karen, Justin, Violet, Shawn, Judy, David, Lisa, Al, Sandy, Shelley and Glen. Some set up and tore down, some cooked and served the lunch, some helped with each event, picked up hay, brought the rats, did paper work, sold merchandise, signed up new members, and helped to make this a fun and care-free day for all. Thanks, again to a great bunch of people who are always there and willing to help.

We gained 11 new members and 3 renewals. Thanks to all of you for your continued support of this club. Hope to see you all at the next event, Yuletide on Dec 1 and 2, 2007. Zephyrhills, FL

Russell Mania is now in the books. We can be proud as a Club to have had another successful and well attended trial. With the high cost of fuel it was a relief to see so many out of state exhibitors and their terriers in attendance. We thank them for helping make this a great trial. Of course, our own State showed up in full force too. We are fortunate to have such a large membership that comes out and supports the events as well as they do. We have already had emails and comments to let us know how great the prizes were; another job well done by our merchandize and awards committee. The raffle queen showed us a tidy bank of $1500.00. What would we do without her!! Thank you, Carolyn. Miss Shelley led our youth through another great season and we had a tie for Youth Handler of the Year between Shane Richardson and Alyssa Show. Our Child Handler of the Year was Jenna Thompson. We are very proud of all of these fine young people and hope they will continue to be involved in our Club. Thanks to all the judges for another weekend of smooth running events. It was very much appreciated by us to have so many people jump in and help with conformation. Thanks to judges Teri Evans & Gaye Redpath, announcers and stewards, Shannon Tucker, Ursula Schwalbe, Linda Quinn, Daphne Duvall and Mollie Weamer and of course our conformation committee. Martin Mayo, agility judge did a great job and even found time to run his dog on the lure course. Mal McEwen, Linda Quinn, David McKinney, and Ray Higgs kept GTG, Super Earth, and Trailing and Locating running well. Thanks for a nice job. Anne Davis did her usual great job of judging racing and both days ended on time. She even won some raffle items to take home. Our Board and Officers and volunteers made set up and tear down go off without a hitch. Thank you to everyone. Now let's get started on Sunshine Showdown!!!

The next event will be our Membership Appreciation Day at the Florida Horse Park. Details are on the website. All events are free. This is the club's way of saying thank you to its' great and supportive members.

Congratulations to all those that attended JRTCA Nationals this year. Our members did very well. Thanks to Patsy Bailey, Shelley Holland and Judy Tyno for getting the "Club Raffle Basket" together. The theme was Florida attraction Disney World. It was full of great items from the magical land, including tickets to the parks, as well as Florida oranges and some Sunshine State club merchandise and entries for a future trial. It won a BLUE ribbon for best theme. Way to go! Photos should be on website.

Election information can be found under that heading on the website, but I personally want to say Thank you to my out-going Board, Shawn Aniol, Sandy Grimmel, Daphne Duvall, Ruth Evans, Shelley Holland and Al Lackner. Without you this would have been a tough job, your skills and always ready to help attitude got us all through these past couple years. Thank you for everything. I want to say a big welcome to the new Board that starts Jan. 1st. 2008, Don Ahrens, V.P., Pam Williams, Treas., Directors: Rick Bailey, Jose Esteves, David McKinney and Jason Jones. You have some big shoes to fill, but I know you can do it. Also, thank you to those directors that agreed to re-up, Ray Higgs, Judy Tyno and Audie Sumner. To all of you I say, Thank You for stepping up and helping to make this club grow and succeed. Remember, at the end of 2008 we will need 2 officers and 2 Directors...so be thinking of how you can help.

Keep checking the website, new things are being added weekly.

See you at the next trial.....

John Tyno
President 2006-2008

When you bring a dog into your life, you begin a journey. A journey that will bring you more love and devotion than you have ever known, yet will also test your strength and courage. If you allow, the journey will teach you many things, about life, about yourself, and most of all, about love. You will come away changed forever, for one soul cannot touch another without forever leaving its mark.

Along the way, you will learn much about savoring life's simple pleasures --jumping in leaves, snoozing in the sun, the joys of puddles, and even the satisfaction of a good scratch behind the ears.

If you spend much time outside, you will be taught how to truly experience every element, for no rock, leaf, or log will go unexamined, no rustling bush will be overlooked, and even the very air will be inhaled, pondered, and noted as being full of valuable information.

Your pace may be slower, except when heading home to the food dish, but you will become a better naturalist, having been taught by an expert in the field. Too many times we hike on automatic pilot, our goal being to complete the trail rather than enjoy the journey. We miss the details: the colorful mushrooms on the rotting log, the honeycomb in the old maple snag, the hawkfeather caught on a twig.

Once we walk as a dog does, we discover a whole new world. We stop; we browse the landscape, we kick over leaves, peek in tree holes, look up, down, all around. And we learn what any dog knows: that nature has created a marvelously complex world that is full of surprises, that each cycle of the seasons bring ever changing wonders, that each day has an essence all its own.

Even from indoors, you will find yourself more attuned to the world around you. You will find yourself watching: summer insects collecting on a screen; how bizarre they are; how many kinds there are; or noting the flick and flash of fireflies through the dark. You will stop to observe the swirling dance of windblown leaves, or sniff the air after a rain. It does not matter that there is no objective in this; the point is in the doing, in not letting life's most important details slip by.

You will find yourself doing silly things that your dog-less friends might not understand: spending thirty minutes in the grocery aisle looking for the exact brand of food your companion must have, buying dog birthday treats, or just driving around the block an extra time because your dog enjoys the ride. You will roll in the snow, wrestle with

Bridlepath Rascal

August 9, 1997 - September 16, 2007

I had been in the "dog world" for only a few years with "my baby girl" Norma Sue. When Norma Sue was three years young I knew that she needed a friend to play with and that she would be the one to pick out her new playmate. From a litter of seven playful pups and without any hesitation she chose Rascal. The immediate bond the two of them shared was and always remained magic. Rascal "The Boy" and Norma Sue slept together, played together, traveled together and competed together. If Norma Sue was the Lady of The House, then Rascal was always the Perfect Gentleman, always kind, always deferring to Norma Sue and always at her side. About four years ago I introduced Norma Sue and Rascal to my new Jack Russell pup, Paula Annie. I have always been amazed by Rascal's gentle ways, never competing for my affection, though he always had it and now he had two sisters to watch over.

He liked to play ball and join Paula Annie whenever she chased after squirrels in the backyard. Sometimes playing his own little game, Rascal would try to catch bees or any little bug that flew into his line of vision. He would stand and look up into the sky, then suddenly jump up and try to catch his prey. Though he did learn a thing or two about bees he still enjoyed the chase. Right from the start Rascal was truly a natural. Any towel or rag became a lure. Over the years, from puppy to veteran, he won many championships and all of his trophies, prizes and ribbons are proudly displayed in my home.

Whether I would be working in the garden or playing with the dogs in our yard Rascal was always at my side. Rascal was a mischievous little thief, much like Oliver Twist, anything laid to the ground, from garden gloves to flower pots to screwdrivers or tennis balls, would quickly disappear as would Rascal until he returned empty handed and looking ever so innocent.

This past year our little family was joined by my best friend and fiancé, Jim and his cat, Roxy.

Neither of us really knew what to expect from the mix of one cat and three JRT's. It was Rascal who led the way to accepting Roxy as part of our family. But Rascal was a bit shy with Jim at first and waited to see how well his sisters got along with him. Seeing Paula Annie in Jim's lap was all it took. From that moment on Rascal and Jim were, without any doubt, the very best of friends. Rascal was Jim's "buddy." Rascal became Jim's side-kick and Jim loved his company. Whenever together Rascal was either by his side or in his lap, where he would lay quietly as Jim pet him and spoke to him in a soft, loving voice until Rascal would let out a sigh and slip off into a deep sleep. That is until Jim's legs would become so stiff that they both had to get up and go out into the yard and play ball or just run around chasing each other. Rascal had this wonderful deep tone to his voice and he would talk to me all of the time, maybe telling me about his day or what his crazy sister Paula Annie had been up to while I was gone. He talked to me but he talked with Jim who would mimic his vocal expressions. When Jim would call the dogs in from the yard it was always Rascal first followed by Paula Annie on top or beside Rascal in Jim's lap competing to see who could lick him the most. Jim would come into the house and in a voice from a "Ghost Busters" movie he would cry out "I've been slimed, I've been slimed all over!"

Rascal always seemed to know when we needed a hug and from a stand-still position he would jump into our arms and give us all of the love and comfort that we needed. And I guess that when Rascal needed a hug he would do the same.

Rascal was well liked by all who ever met him and truly loved by his "family."

We love you Rascal. We have always loved you and we always will. Your love, kindness and gentle soul have been a greater part of the tapestry that is our lives.

Now, off you go, boy... Play in the fields of gold till we are all together again.

"There's no love like a dog's love."
Laurie Phillips, FL

chewie toys, bounce tennis balls till your eyes cross, and even run around the house trailing your bathrobe tie with a puppy in hot pursuit, all in the name of love.

Your house will become muddier and hairier. You will wear less dark clothing and buy more lint rollers. You may find dog biscuits in your pocket or purse, and feel the need to explain that old socks adorn your living room floor because your dog loves an impromptu game of tug. You will learn the true measure of love--the steadfast, undying kind that says, "It doesn't matter where we are or what we do, or how life treats us as long as we are together."

Respect this always. It is the most precious gift any living soul can give another. You will not find it often among the human race. And you will learn humility. The look in my dog's eyes often made me feel ashamed--such joy and love at my presence! She saw not some flawed human who could be cross and stubborn, moody or rude, but only her wonderful companion. Or maybe she saw those things and dismissed them as mere human foibles, not worth considering, and so chose to love me anyway. If you pay attention and learn well, when the journey is done, you will be not just a better person, but the person your dog always knew you to be--the one they were proud to call beloved friend.

I must caution you that this journey is not without pain. Like all paths of true love, the pain is part of loving. For as surely as the sun sets, one day your dear companion will follow a trail you cannot yet go down. And you will have to find the strength and love to let them go. A dog's time on earth is far too short, especially for those of us that love them. We borrow them, really, just for a while; and during these brief years they are generous enough to give us all their love, every inch of their spirit and heart, until one day there is nothing left. The dog that only yesterday was a puppy is all too soon old and frail and sleeping in the sun. The young pup of boundless energy now wakes up stiff and lame, the muzzle gone to gray. Deep down we somehow always knew that this journey would end. We knew that if we gave our hearts they would be broken. But give them we must, for it is all they ask in return.

When the time comes, and the road curves ahead to a place we cannot see, we give one final gift and let them run on ahead, young and whole once more. "God speed, good friend," we say, "until our journey comes full circle and our paths will cross again."

THE GREAT DAVIE VERMIN HUNT

By Beverly Skilling

I was settled in watching the season premier of House and the dogs were snuggled down in their beds in the other room. Suddenly a brown blur scuttled across the floor just at the edge of my vision. Having had a glimpse of this creature before, I knew what was needed.....Jack Russell's to the rescue!

"Otis! Anna! Get the rat!" Now, Otis knows the word "rat". He came skidding around the corner on the tile floor and scrambled into the room with Anna right beside him. As an agility dog, Anna did not know what "rat" meant, but she knew if Otis was that excited something really cool was happening.

I pulled one end of the couch out and the critter ran behind the shelves. I pulled the shelves away from the wall and my dogs began hunting as a team, one from each side. The squealing streak jumped clear over Otis's head and went behind the couch again. Out came the other side of the couch and the dogs dove around the far end and chased the damn thing right between my legs and into the hallway.

Big mistake Mr. Rat. Even though Otis doesn't have any teeth he was perfectly capable of helping Anna corner it in the hallway. Instinct took over and with one shake Anna sent one rat to the great cheese ball in the sky. Then with a low growl and not a thought about a jump or an A-frame, she told me she was a JACK RUSSELL TERRIER and NOBODY was going to take HER rat away.

I slipped the leashes on both dogs, making sure (ick) I didn't accidentally touch what was hanging out of my sweet little girl's mouth and we dashed outside. It is hard to go potty while holding a dead rat, so when it hit the ground I dragged her away from it and it was left beside the road while I tugged Anna back to the house.
