JRTCA Says "Thank You"!

Emailed to John Tyno

Please accept this very late but very sincere thank you to the Sunshine State JRTC for the AMAZING treasure chest you all donated to the JRTCA National Trial raffle. It made the raffle GREAT. Thank you so much.

I know we thanked you in True Grit but I wanted to send everyone a thank you that brought a raffle item. Yours tipped the scale of excellence.

The artist is a true and excellent artist. The paintings on the chest are breathtaking.

Florida Rules!!! See you

Dear Melanie,

It's all about Sunshine Showdown-- just a couple weeks away!

Save money on Sunshine Showdown entry fees by renewing your membership today and by getting your entries postmarked by March 17th!

Look what you could win!

Club member Carolyn Williams has painted beautiful pictures on slate for some of the prizes! See more examples on the Announcements page at SSJRTC.com.

This weekend they will be

Please remember to jump in and help out with set up and tear down of trial events. The more that do, the faster and easier it goes for everyone. Thank you!

And don't forget your raffle items. We really need them this time and we want to show the visitors from JRTCA that winning their Battle of the Baskets is not the only time we know how to raffle! Bring some stuff-- doesn't have to be dog oriented.

→ Congratulations!

Congratulations are in order for RaShar McCormick Place, owned by Melanie Heckler and Don Ahrens and Piccadilly Libby owned by John and Judy Tyno.

These fine Jacks won Champion and Reserve High Point Awards at the recent Gold Coast Terrier Network trials.

Way to go Mac and Libby!
